PCA reserves the right to combine or remove divisions if necessary.

- Teams may enter a maximum of 2 male and/or 2 female entrants and this specialty competition is ONLY open to members of teams that are competing in the Nationals (in the TEAM competition - ie. not just the stunt competition).
- All tumblers must perform a minimum of 1. full twisting back layout and 2. Jump-tuck combination (ie. toe touch - back tuck)
Given that this is a tumbling competition, athletes are not scored for non-tumbling elements.
- Athletes must provide music on CD (or mp3 player) and the maximum length of performance is 60 seconds.
- Athletes may only compete ONCE in either the collegiate or open division competition.
- Athletes are to perform in their team uniforms (not practice gear) and shoes must be worn.
- Tumbling competition regulations follow the USASF Level 6 guidelines. ie. performers may not use 'props' or perform flyovers, double backs or exceed double twists.

The following conditions apply to the TUMBLING competition. The team event deadlines are different.

All paid partner stunt entries and forms must be received AT the PCA Office on or before Wednesday November 7, 2012.

LATE entries (received between and including November 8, 2012 and November 19, 2012) will have the following applied to them:

1. $10.00 late fee is added per person.

2. Entry into the competition MAY be denied if numbers are too high or the registration is late. Please apply early.

No entries will be accepted after Nov 19, 2012
